BRYAN AND CHINDA TALK

Pittsburg, June 7.—The Japanese ambassador to America, Viscount Chinda, and the new American ambassador to Japan, George W. Guthrie, of this city, shared the honors of a testimonial dinner to the latter last night, arranged by "friends and neighbors."

Ambassador Guthrie in expressing his appreciation of the demonstration in his honor, addressing himself to Viscount Chinda, said:

"Your excellency, what you see here will, I have no doubt, convince you that the American people as a whole intend to keep faith and desire to live in peace and friendship with the emperor when you are justly proud to represent, and the people to which you are justly proud to belong, as well as with all the other nations of the world. We are a people who keep faith, and we wish to do justice.

Count Chinda's Address.

The address of Baron Chinda, Japanese ambassador, was followed with great interest, owing to the prominence he has taken in recent international affairs.

Viscount Chinda said:

"Allow me to express my profound appreciation of the privilege kindly extended to me to assist at this brilliant function held in honor of His Excellency, Mr. Guthrie, your new ambassador to the court of Tokyo. With your permission I gladly make use of the opportunity thus afforded to me to say that both the United States and Japan are to be sincerely congratulated upon the appointment by which the important mission of representing this great republic in Japan has been placed in an able and distinguished hand.

"Once more has your illustrious and respected president shown his high qualities of statesmanship, in the choice of the right man in the right place. It is therefore with an unmixed feeling of delight that I join in this public demonstration of good-bye tendered to your honored ambassador. Especially great is my pride to think that I am the first of all my countrymen to extend to him the hearty and cordial greetings which are no doubt in abundant store for him in Japan.

"Gentlemen, the constant improvement in the means of communication and transportation is substantially reducing the geographical distance which intervenes between different parts of the world. The United States and Japan, separated as they are by the vast and unfathomed waters of the Pacific ocean, are now brought into contact with each other in all branches of peaceful activities.

Plea for Fair Play.

"I do not deny that such contact is liable to give rise to occasional misunderstandings and complications, but I do deny the existence, or the possible existence, of any phase of those difficulties which would not eventually yield to due and timely processes of diplomatic treatment—the treatment of justice and fair play and of a sympathetic understanding of the problems of one nation by the other.

"It is this spirit which has so eminently characterized the American people and also has invariably guided the course of action taken by Japan in discussing questions of international moment. It is in this spirit alone that these questions could be satisfactorily adjusted to the true and lasting satisfaction of all parties. It should be the noble endeavor of every patriotic man in both countries to direct his efforts to an amicable solution on such basis of any problem that may confront us in our intercourse and to transmit to our posterity the unscathed record of our amicable standing bequeathed to us by our forefathers. That record forms part of our dear and valued assets. It should be preserved, it should be amplified and extended to all ages to come.

"Our two nations, bound by such auspicious tradition, and guided by the same aims and the same aspirations to contribute to the pacific progress of the world, should forever remain good and trusted neighbors. And I feel, gentlemen, that my humble labors in this direction find ready co-operation and encouragement at the hands of your great president, as well as your renowned secretary of state, Mr. Bryan, and your worthy representative to Japan, Mr. Guthrie, who honor us by their presence here tonight.

"I am sure that the expression of friendship voiced by such distinguished leaders of American politics cannot fail to touch a responsive chord in the hearts of all thinking men on both sides of the Pacific."

B. P. Newman of Newman Sheet Metal Works, doing business at Salt Lake City, has moved an equipped set of tinners' tools to Ogden and opened a shop at 281 24th street, opposite postoffice. Mr. Newman having secured the sheet metal work on the E. J. Kiesel new building now in course of erection, also other work in Ogden and Box Elder county deemed it wise to make this move.

In connection with the sheet metal business Henry James Newman, his son, will carry on a commission business, dealing in hay, grain and poultry supplies, etc. Mr. B. P. Newman is well known in our city, having once been a member of the Junction City Cornice Works, Newman Bros., proprietors. WILSON IS A LOBBYIST

Senator Townsend Says That the President's Action Was the Nearest Approach to Using Undue Influence Upon the Members of Congress

Washington, June 7.—An unexpected turn was given the senate's lobby investigation last yesterday when Senator Townsend of Michigan, Republican, declared on the stand that the influence wielded by President Wilson and by the Democratic secret caucus upon the making of the tariff bill, constituted the "nearest approach to undue influence upon members of congress" that the investigating committee would be able to find. Senator Townsend criticized the committee for having asked members of the senate whether the president had sought to influence them and declared that even though the president had not intended it, his recent denunciation of "lobby" working in support of changes in the tariff would force certain senators to vote against amendments they knew to be just.

"Who are those senators?" demanded Senator Reed.

"I don't care to name any one," returned Townsend.

The two Democratic members of the committee present, Senators Reed and Walsh, indignantly resented any intimation that President Wilson had used patronage or threats to force any one to support free sugar or free wool or to support tobacco as a whole. "I move," said Senator Walsh, "that in view of the serious statements made touching the executive that any senator who has testified already may be recalled and interrogated in reference thereto."

"I am for that," said Senator Nelson, and members of the committee agreed.

Senator Weeks of Massachusetts, also a Republican, following Senator Townsend on the stand, expressed the opinion that "executives had had more influence on bills than all the persons who have come to Washington put together."

The statement that the president put out in regard to an insidious lobby influenced the public mind," said Senator Weeks, "and that has its effect upon the senators. The public believes a lobbyist is a bad man and no senator likes to oppose a measure if the president says the lobbyists are seeking to change it."

Senator Shively, a Democratic member of the finance committee, said he knew of no lobbying influences at work on the tariff.

To allow the lobby investigating committee to make a more extensive inquiry than was at first contemplated the senate today extended the time for the committee's report to June 28.

"A man who threatens to close his factory or to create a panic of congress does this so is a lobbyist of the worst character," declared Senator Kern of Indiana at the night session. "This does not apply, of course, to men who are sincere and honest in their presentation of their case," he added.

The senate said he believed letters and telegrams which interested parties had sent to members of congress falsely to represent conditions in their home state was in the highest degree improper, and that a great deal of work had been done in the present tariff session by outside parties trying to manufacture them.

Senator Warren of Wyoming, endorsed the sentiments expressed earlier in the day by Senators Townsend and Weeks that effective influence had been exerted by President Wilson. "If the president has the right," said he "to send for a senator and urge him to vote in a certain way, surely a senator has the same right to try to influence a fellow senator."

Senator Warren said he held $500,000 worth of stock in the Warren Livestock company of Wyoming, which owns from fifty to sixty thousand head of sheep. He said he believed the president had gone further than he ought in influencing members of congress and had used excessive persuasion.

Senator Warren declared his interest in sheep would not affect his vote on the tariff in any way, and that he did not consider it necessary to refrain from voting on any scheduled matter.

The committee adjourned until Monday. About a dozen senators are to be examined before the hearing of outsiders begins.

The names of Charles B. Warren, president of the Michigan Beet Sugar company and Alfred E. Ely of Washington were added to the list of witnesses.

BROWNING IS TO BE POSTMASTER

Advices from the postoffice department at Washington are to the effect that the postmaster general will appoint W. W. Browning postmaster to succeed L. W. Shurtliff, whose term expired January 11, but who is holding the office upon the confirmation of his successor.

Understood, here and at Washington, that the matter of selecting Mr. Browning's appointment to the senate and its confirmation will be hastened so that the new postmaster may take hold of the office July 1.

Mr. Browning announced here last Monday that his name had been sent to Washington as the selection of the Democratic state powers in Utah.

While the other candidates, of whom there were several, did not give up the battle on that account, the latest advices from the capital are to the effect that the choice has been definitely made, and that nothing remains but the formalities incident to Mr. Browning's confirmation.

MIKE YOKEL TO MEET FINLANDER JULY 4

Fort Collins, Colo., June 7.—Fort Collins is becoming the center of the wrestling world, at least in the middleweight class. The latest championship affair to be arranged is that which will take place July 4 between Mike Yokel of Salt Lake, probably the best middleweight in America, and Wanno Ketonen of Finland.

Ketonen has been heralded as the middleweight champion of Europe and is touring this country, meeting all the middleweights.

Yokel is a great favorite with local wrestling followers, having appeared here in several matches and giving the fans an exhibition to enthrall over. A good card of preliminaries has been arranged for the July 4 date.

AMERICANS SEEK AID

Tampico, Mexico, June 7.—Three hundred Americans located in southern Tamaulipas, representing 63 families, have demanded in a long message to President Wilson sent through Consul Miller here, to know "once for all" whether they can expect protection from their home government since they "do not desire to take measures for our own safety which would embarrass our government without giving due notice beforehand."

The message of the Americans was transmitted by wireless through Consul Miller to W. W. Canada, the American consul at Vera Cruz, to be forwarded to Washington. It says in part:

"Having been left without any protection whatever on the part of both sides of the pending controversy, therefore we can only look for protection from our own country. We must know once for all if we can expect the same. Having been subjected to slights and a great variety of indignities and gross abuse in the last few days, the situation calls for more serious preparations for our personal safety and the defense of our families and our interests. Therefore we have assembled to consider the best way. We consider protection necessary now since after death it will be of no use."

The message declares in addition that the petitioners have borne financial losses silently but that many of them cannot obey the advice to "get away if in danger," as their departure would mean the abandonment of the accumulations of a life-time.

"We consider the lives of ourselves and our families in danger and the situation has justified this petition several times in the last few days." The message continues:

"It is no longer doubtful that the slightest change in the line of the dread conflagration at any moment, in many instances the small arms sold American citizens by the American government for their protection have been demanded and in some instances they have been taken."

BILL CALLS FOR THREE WARSHIPS

Washington, June 7.—Representative Graham of Pennsylvania, introduced a bill yesterday to immediately appropriate $15,000,000 to increase the navy by authorizing the construction of three first-class battleships, to be heavily armed, as powerfully armed as speedily as possible, and a battleship of the type of the Iowa.

He is in Los Angeles investigating conditions for importation and for distribution of the stock to ranges.

Mr. Schlager says the substitution of Australian livestock for the frozen product now being imported will reduce the price of meats one-half. "It has reached a point," said Schlager, "where farmers and cattlemen are selling their stock cows, preferring to get a good price now rather than increase their herds by breeding. So many have adopted this policy that stock cattle are almost a rarity and the situation is going to be appalling if a remedy cannot be found at once. We hope by bringing in cattle here to remedy this condition."

Cattle prices have increased here fully 100 per cent during the last ten years, but the quantity of cattle has fallen off at least 40 per cent, according to Mr. Schlager.

MONEY RETURNED; CHARGES DROPPED

Philadelphia, June 7.—An indictment charging Walter S. Shrouds, former superintendent of the safe deposit vaults of the Merchants' Union Trust company, with the theft of nearly a million and a half dollars in cash to a jury in the court this part of the county to such an extent as to cause considerable alarm.

For a distance of about five miles on both sides of what is known as "the swamp" the grasshoppers have hatched out by the millions and are commencing a steady march toward the grain fields.

For some time past the farmers have been waging a war of extermination on them, but it is feared that considerable damage will be done to the crops.

DISMISSAL OF HEETER

Pittsburg School Superintendent Let Out After Investigators Find Him Guilty of Immorality in Taking Unwarranted Liberties With Women

Pittsburg, June 7.—After many weeks of investigating, the board of public education last night discharged S. L. Heeter, superintendent of public schools, finding him guilty of immorality in making improper advances and taking unwarranted liberties with women. But one member of the board, Miss Beulah Kennard, voted against discharging Heeter. The accused superintendent was not present.

Early in March last, a domestic employed by Heeter made two serious charges against him while she was ill in a hospital. He was arrested, indicted and acquitted by a jury in criminal court. He had been granted a leave of absence during the trial. When he resumed his duties as superintendent after his acquittal, demonstrations of "strikes" participated in by thousands of school children occurred all over the city.

Additional charges that Superintendent Heeter had acted indiscreetly with others, resulted in the board of education appointing a citizens' committee to make a thorough investigation. Last Monday the committee made its report to the board finding Heeter guilty.

MAN AND HIS GIRL COMPANION IN JAIL

Salt Lake, June 7.—Upon advices of Henry East, sheriff of Utah county, W. H. Barton, 39 years of age, claiming to be a construction foreman, and Clara Morgan, 21 years of age, whose home is at Tucker, Utah, were held at police headquarters last night.

While both Barton and Miss Morgan insist that their arrival in Salt Lake City yesterday morning was perfectly legitimate, the police say that the girl's mother is anxious as to her daughter.

The first known of Barton by the local police was yesterday morning when a telegram signed by a citizen of Tucker arrived at headquarters. The telegram asked for the detention of a man and a girl who would arrive here on a train from Tucker. Although the police did not think seriously of the telegram, the age of the girl prompted an investigation and detectives were sent to meet the train, taking Barton and Miss Morgan to police headquarters.
